Zeitgeist: "You see SEC ending $25k minimum for day trading...if only there were signs."

The Biggest Picture: nothing says risk-on more than Aussie dollar (cyclical FX) at highest levels vs. Japanese yen (funding FX) since Oct'90 (Chart 2).

The Price is Right: CCMP on 12-day win streak, best since Jul'09; XLK tech closes new weekly highs (>$153)...up sharply, XLF fails 200-day MA ($53)...bull trap.

Tale of the Tape: April '26 BofA Global Fund Manager Survey most bearish institutional sentiment since Jun'25, yet flows show '26 on track for record year of inflows to both global equities ($1.0tn) & IG bonds ($0.5bn)..."watch what they do, not what they say".

Chart 2: AUDJPY at highest since Oct'90... "risk on"

BofA GLOBAL RESEARCH

Weekly Flows: $11.3bn into stocks, $7.9bn into bonds, $1.2bn into gold, $1.2bn into crypto, $172.2bn from cash.

Flows to Know:

- Cash: $172.2bn outflow...largest outflow ever (risk-on but also tax-related...average April cash outflow was $41bn past 4 years vs. $103bn this year - Chart 11),
- HY debt: $3.1bn inflow...largest since May'25,
- Treasuries: $3.0bn outflow...1st outflow in 11 weeks,
- EM stocks: $10.5bn outflow...largest outflow in 11 weeks,
- Europe stocks: $4.7bn outflow...largest since Nov'24 (Chart 12),
- Stocks: $11.3bn inflow, driven by $17.4bn inflow to US equities,
- Japan: $4.4bn outflow...largest since Nov'25 (Chart 13),
- China: $10.8bn outflow...largest in 11 weeks,
- Korea: $2.5bn outflow...largest ever,
- Tech: $3.8bn outflow...largest since May'25 (Chart 14).

BofA Private Clients: $4.3tn AUM...64.2% stocks, 18.0% bonds, 10.5% cash; biggest inflow to T-bills since Jan'26; bid for stocks continues...equity ETF share count up 3% YTD, 1% past 4 weeks, 0.2% in past week; private clients buying high dividend, industrial sector, TIPS ETFs, selling consumer staples, bank loan, energy ETFs in past 4 weeks.

BofA Bull & Bear Indicator: up to 6.3 from 6.1; inflows to HY & EM debt, tighter HY & AT1 credit spreads, more bullish S&P 500, gold, 2-year UST futures positioning, offset tech sector outflows & bearish Apr Global FMS (cash 4.3%, investors less OW stocks vs. bonds); "old" BofA Bull & Bear Indicator down to 5.3 from 5.4.¹

Macro bears vs stock bulls: macro bears say "can't buy risk until inflation peaks"...Q2 risk is oil up, CPI up, yields up & bond tantrum (a la '13, '15, '22, '23 – Table 2) on combo of surprise reacceleration of labor market, geopolitically weak US$, pressure for Warsh to start dovish (in the 3 months after the start of 7 new Fed chair terms, yields rose by 50bps on average - Table 1); stock bulls say "so long as yields & unemployment in 4-5% range we gucci"...SPX EPS on course for >$330 justifies new highs (Chart 3), stocks much better than bonds as policymakers placate electorates with strong nominal GDP growth, Gen QE & Gen Z know stock market "too big to fail".

We say: both CPI & EPS expectations peak in Q2...2-year Treasury yield won't break 4%, 2s30s UST yield curve bull steepens to >140bps, US$ DXY index hits new lows (<96), China Shanghai index makes run to 4.5k, consumer discretionary beats energy in Q2.

- Buy Curve steepeners: hard to pass through higher oil prices when consumer frustrated re affordability (Trump approval inflation new low <33%) & insecure re AI job replacement; macro says cuts not hikes (US small biz capex intentions slump to Dec'09 lows – Chart 4), US rate expectations (max dovish 125bps cuts in Oct, max hawkish 20bps hikes in March, now 5bps cuts – Chart 5) to fall further.
- Sell US Dollar: tariffs, threats end NATO, OPEC petrodollar recycling...US dollar buyers strike as low appetite for more US assets (foreigners own $20tn US stocks,

¹ For more info see BofA Bull & Bear Indicator revamp; we will continue to publish weekly updates on old Bull & Bear Indicator in the Flow Show 'til later this year.

$10tn US Treasuries, $5tn US corporate bonds) to fund $39tn of US debt and its $1.2tn annual debt servicing cost; Fed pressure to cut to grow, US policymakers will trade weaker dollar rather than higher bond yields to attract foreign capital.

- Buy Commodities: commodities>stocks>bonds>US$ secular asset return pecking order...commodities...risk hedge for allocators, inflation hedge for allocators, US$ bear market hedge for allocators, plus geopolitics now driven by need to monopolize commodities...who owns the chips, rare earths, minerals, oil, wins the AI war.
- Buy China: biggest equity winners since Trump inauguration are US-China AI war winners (US semis, Asia tech, Canada/LatAm materials)...China tech stocks catching up bigly...ChiNext index breaking out (Chart 6), and China tech exports up 43% YoY (to $234bn - Chart 8); Chinese currency vs. Japanese yen highest since Aug'92 (Chart 7), vs. Korean won highest since Feb'09, and China has plenty of energy to power AI (alternative energy, Russian oil...).
- Buy Consumer: US consumer discretionary at GFC '08 & COVID '20 relative lows (equal-weighted - Chart 9); global consumer discretionary at 3-year lows vs energy stocks (Chart 10); consumer has priced in stagflation more than any other sector and our fave contrarian long to trade Trump post-war pivot to address affordability & slump in approval ratings, and great way to hedge H2'2020s electoral shift from "populist capitalism" to "populist socialism".

The analysis of the BofA Bull & Bear Indicator in this report is back-tested and does not represent the actual performance of any account or fund. Back-tested performance depicts the hypothetical back-tested performance of a particular strategy over the time period indicated. In future periods, market and economic conditions will differ and the same strategy will not necessarily produce the same results. No representation is being made that any actual portfolio is likely to have achieved returns similar to those shown herein. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between back-tested returns and the actual results realized in the actual management of a portfolio. Back-tested performance results are created by applying an investment strategy or methodology to historical data and attempts to give an indication as to how a strategy might have performed during a certain period in the past if the product had been in existence during such time. Back-tested results have inherent limitations including the fact that they are calculated with the full benefit of hindsight, which allows the security selection methodology to be adjusted to maximize the returns. Further, the results shown do not reflect actual trading or the impact that material economic and market factors might have had on a portfolio manager's decision-making under actual circumstances. Back-tested returns do not reflect advisory fees, trading costs, or other fees or expenses.

Disclosures

Important Disclosures

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R1}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R1} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
